

or

(as in corn)

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

corn horn cork pork fort born lord torn form dorm cord sort

_____	_____
-----	-----
_____	_____
_____	_____
-----	-----
_____	_____

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

or

(as in corn)

torn sort fort form morn short snort storm fork cork scorn porch

“a torn dress” “sort the cubes” “form a line”

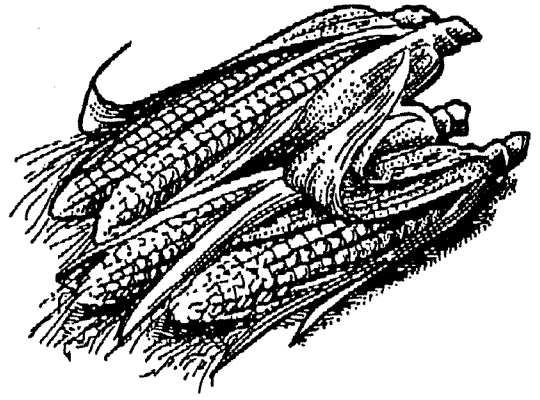

“a short boy” “sat on the porch” “a storm is coming”

“pick up the fork” “the cork popped” “the horse snorted”

Words to Spell:

or

(as in corn)

port horn lord torn morn sort cork pork

fork fort cord form

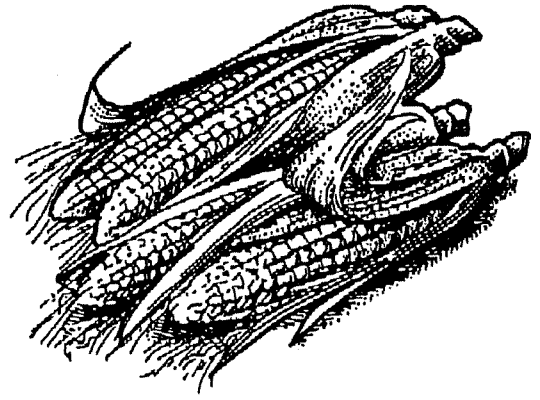

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

or
(as in corn)

port sport storm snort dorm norm pork

short form scorn

or

(as in corn)

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

born for cord sort fort horn

short ford torn form dorm cork

“a short cord” “rushed to the fort” “born in a stall”

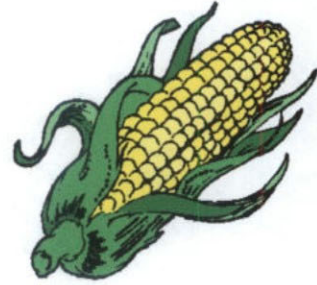

“the tall black horse” “a white stork” “sank in the storm”

_____	_____
-----	-----
_____	_____
_____	_____
-----	-----
_____	_____

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

or

(as in corn)

sort cord ford storm short porch form

horse stork torch snort scorn port lord

“for the man” “a short cord” “get a fork from the sink”

“lit the torch” “sort out the chips” “will go in the morn”

“had corn for lunch” “a torn cloth” “a black horse”

Words to Spell:
